Prosperity at Calvary is about God & Money. A blueprint to the secrets of a happy life!

Prosperity at Calvary is an entertaining and inspiring non-fiction book about God's promised prosperity. The book ventures beyond the Bible unveiling secrets, silence and invisible spirit that nurture prosperity. Prosperity at Calvary is communicated with candor, courage, wit and passion, blending autobiographic self-help with psychological, political and religious analysis while examining the master life changing defining moments in our lives.

At Calvary prosperity flourished as unique gift that are manifestations of the Holy Spirit. It was a day where each of us was given spiritual gifts from God. Prosperity at Calvary solved the obstacles we face of inviting the Holy Spirit into our lives to lift our loads and overcome barriers. It is a book for reviving the soul, to conquer the mental and emotional problems that control our lives

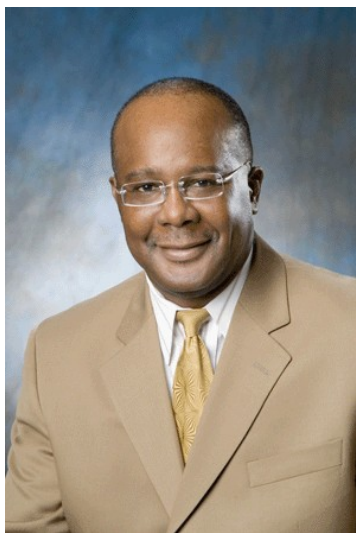

At Calvary Jesus released his spirit into the world to heal hurt; comfort broken hearts accentuate forgiveness and conquer fears. The spirit released at Calvary strengthened every noble impulse and signaled that life begins not at death but in the present. It was a day of conversion where believers left one orientation for another. It was a day where Christ spirit would aid us on how to distinguish the difference between our hunches and logic to come into the presence of God. Prosperity at Calvary is a unique testimony of God's self-disclosure through living a prosperous life, an understanding of balance between faith and works.
